INCLEMENT WEATHER

In the event of inclement weather, please tune into KNWA, check our web site, or phone the church office or Pastor's cell. If schools close on Wednesday, we close as well.

Open the Eyes of My Heart

Open the eyes of my heart, Lord
Open the eyes of my heart
I want to see You
I want to see You

To see You high and lifted up
Shinin' in the light of Your glory
Pour out Your power and love
As we sing holy, holy, holy

Holy, holy, holy
We cry holy, holy, holy
You are holy, holy, holy
I want to see you

Events & Happenings (in chronological order)

ONE GREAT NIGHT OF PRAISE

This Friday, 7:00 pm

For anyone who simply loves to come together and worship acoustically, we're hosting a night of praise. The evening will include some hymns and praise and worship. The point of the night? It's not about style, it's not about us, it's all about giving glory to God.

SOLES2SOULS GIVEAWAY

This Saturday, 9:00 am—Noon

This will be our first big community shoe/sock giveaway. If you'd like to give, volunteer, or have other questions see Joni Womack.

A Word from Pastor Brandon

WHEN JESUS CRASHES INTO YOUR WORLD

Christmas songs crack me up! There's the one that says Jesus was laying in a manger and "no crying He makes." How do we know? Another is "the world in silent stillness lays..." When was the last time the world has been silent or still?

We live in a haywire world—one that's never at rest. But Jesus, the Son of God and Prince of Peace, did come and lay in a manger to interrupt the craziness around us. He came to make an offer to the world—by giving His life on the cross, He offered the ultimate peace we all desperately need—peace with God over sin.

This Christmas season will probably be a bit haywire for all of us—there are presents to buy and wrap, social functions to attend, church events, and traveling to do. My hope and prayer is that Jesus crashes into the craziness of your Christmas season, and that you and Him have some moments together, in silence, in stillness, that you might know Him more!
